

Magnificent Christmas Decor

CREATED WITH UPCYCLED
PRODUCTS
AT

turyaa
CHENNAI

This Christmas, Turyaa welcomes all their precious guests to come forth and enjoy the feast with smoking sizzler during the winter while you completely drift away with the enchanting ambience of the hotel! The most unique aspect for this year is that the members of Turyaa Hotel took over a mission of setting this building to sparkle, jingle and look tremendous out of waste products.

Every decorated piece of art that is seen is made out of junk that goes into the bin", says the hotel General Manager. The lavishing entrance of pink and purplish shades is complimented with a black piano seated on which is a Santa Claus to add to the festive spirit. The Lobby's ceiling is decorated with hanging stars those made out of the cardboard with each of the hotel employee's picture stuck on it as an acknowledgement and appreciation of their service.

The Nativity has actual living grass in order to give it a touch of reality with a waterfall on the right made with pebbles and stones.

However the main highlight is the bottle art of 8 layers made with about 2018 used glass bottles, representing a Christmas tree! This magnificent piece of art has been created with the support of the Turyaa family.

Even their 25-foot tall grand Christmas Tree is made out of all the dumps that one could possibly imagine! The tall beautiful Tree represents Eco-Friendly environment as Turyaa itself is based originally on a tree concepted virtue. The Kalpavriksha, sculpted on the wall is considered as a wish-fulfilling divine tree in Hindu mythology.

"Arun Raj, our General Manager has been instrumental for his contribution of ideas, support involvement", say the Hotel Staff. "It's only with his and the entire staff's support that made this project turn from dream to reality!

Turyaa, being new in the line of IT corridor landmark, and residing 20 minutes away from the splashing wavy beach is a perfectly viewed Hotels now amongst in the eyes of many. Rated as 5-star deluxe hotel, the business and leisure hotel name Turyaa itself is driven from a Sanskrit word that means "Pure Consciousness".

How to get there:

Address: 144/7, Old Mahabalipuram Road, Thiruvengadam Nagar, Kottivakkam, Chennai, Tamil Nadu 600041

Phone: 044 6697 0000

